A Date for Your Diary: 29th April – Rosary on the Coast – for Faith, Life and Peace in the British Isles.

It is proposed that Our Parish will congregate at St. Edmund's Chapel, on the cliff-top at Hunstanton, at 3.00pm on that Sunday to recite the Rosary. There are around 70 confirmed locations already, around the country.

This is a National Initiative, being promoted by, among others, Antonia Moffat at Walsingham, and the Knights of St. Columba. It is supported by Cardinal Nichols and other Bishops, also Mgr. John Armitage, Rector of the Shrine of Our Lady of Walsingham. It also has support in Scotland and Wales.

More details nearer the time. In the meantime go to www.rosaryonthecoast.co.uk

And finally – A big 'Thank You' to the group of women who prepared the Mothering Sunday Posies distributed at the Mass at St. Cecilia's this morning.
